MOORE HAS NEW FACTS, HE SAYS

Gov. Cox's Convention Manager Declares He Will Tell Committee of "Secret System"

SENATE PROBES ADJOURN

Summons Issued For Names of G. O. P. Regional Directors and Records Kept by Blair

(By United Press)

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 2.—The workings of a great "secret system" of campaign fund collections by the republican party will be laid before the senate "slush fund" investigators here next week, E. H. Moore, Governor Cox's manager at the San Francisco convention, predicted today shortly after his arrival to present new evidence supporting Gov. Cox's charges against the G. O. P. leaders.

Moore was prevented from beginning his disclosures today when the committee adjourned until next Tuesday. Adjournment was taken because several members of the committee had important speaking engagements outside of Chicago.

In the meantime a summons had gone to republican headquarters here for submission to the committee of names of all "regional financial directors" and all records kept by Henry Blair, assistant to Treasurer Fred Upham.

It is upon the alleged activities of Blair and "regional directors" that Moore's evidence rests.

"The committee," said Moore, "will be given leads, which if followed will disclose a vast system, within a system, a secret plan of money raising designed to produce a great sum."

"There was one system of ways and means committees throughout the states which operated under Upham's direction and which the public was not let in on. But besides that was a secret system under Blair's direction, made up of regional workers who organized teams and team captains and conducted a drive for funds."

"This secret organization made up quotas not only for states but for cities," declared Moore.

"Upham and Hays denied at first that there were any quotas at all. Then they were forced to admit that there were state but they still denied there are city quotas as charged by Governor Cox at Pittsburg."

"This committee if it will, can find out all about those city quotas. They were fixed just as Governor Cox read them at Pittsburg."

Part of Moore's evidence consisted of a form, which he said comprised instructions sent out by Blair to the money raisers in the alleged "secret organization."

"This form," said Moore, "is conclusive evidence of the plans that are made and followed. It contains a specific injunction to secrecy, cautioning workers not to leave anything lying around on tables at luncheons held for the purpose of comparing notes and making plans. It further provides for the 'cream list' of which Governor Cox told, he said."

"This list was to be made up of 20 or 25 good prospects in a community and a special favor was to

REPORTS LOSS OF 3 DOGS

Bert Davison Sustains Loss of $225 Through Thefts

Bert Davison, who lives south of Rushville, was in the city today reporting the loss of three valuable coon dogs that have recently been stolen from his farm. A few days ago two of the dogs were taken from the barn, and this morning, while the family was in Shelbyville attending the fair, the mother of several pups, and a valuable dog, was taken from the barn in which they were kept. Each of the dogs was valued at $75, making a total loss in a few days of $225. Local officers were asked to watch for the dogs, and a search of the county was being conducted this afternoon.

HENRY COUNTY GRAND JURY TO INVESTIGATE

Will Meet Next Monday to Probe Killing of William Hart of Near Knightstown

FRANK ELLIS STILL IN JAIL

The Henry county grand jury will be called into session Monday to investigate the killing of William Hart, 19, near Knightstown Monday. Frank Ellis, who dealt young Hart the fatal blow on the head, is being held in the county jail without bond, awaiting the outcome of the jury investigation.

Coroner F. J. Drake, who was in Newcastle, yesterday, was unwilling to state the exact wording of his verdict, but indicated that it would be "homicide from injuries received when struck on the head with a club held in the hands of Ellis." Both Coroner Drake and Acting Prosecutor John M. Morris were of the opinion that it was a matter for the grand jury to pass upon, and that nothing could be done until that body had investigated.

There has been considerable agitation in Knightstown and Wayne township for the release of Ellis on bond. However, when visited by Acting Prosecutor Morris yesterday, Ellis expressed his willingness to remain in jail until the grand jury investigates and stated that he did not wish to complicate matters in an endeavor to secure freedom.

SURETY OF PEACE CHARGE PREFERRED

Fred Dunn of Arlington, Employee of Rushville Factory, Held on Complaint of Wife

ACCOUNT SUIT IS FILED

Fred Dunn, a resident of Arlington, who is employed in a local factory, was placed in jail yesterday afternoon on a surety of peace charge, which was preferred by his wife. Dunn will remain in jail until Saturday morning at nine o'clock, at which time he will be given a trial. His bond for appearance has been placed at $400, which was not provided. Dunn denied having any trouble with his wife, which would cause her to file a charge against him.

Will H. Robbins, a wholesale dealer of Greensburg filed suit against M. J. Mascari, a local merchant, demanding $177.71 on an account which Robbins allege is uncollectable. The amount is a balance due on a ear load of watermelons, according to the complaint.

This case will come up for trial Monday morning at nine o'clock. Both cases were filed in Squire Steech's court.

WOOL CLIP SHIPPED

The wool clip of many members of the Rush County Farmers association was being shipped to Chicago for storage yesterday and today. One car was loaded Wednesday and another car was being loaded today. The wool growers decided to store their clip for a higher market.

LOCAL COUNTRY CLUB AGITATED

Movement For Organization Here Proposed at Joint Meeting of Rotary Clubs

NEWCASTLE CLUB IS HOST.

Twenty-five Rushville Rotarians Enjoy Hospitality and Break Bread With Rose City Men

A country club for Rushville may be the outgrowth of the joint meeting of Newcastle and Rushville Rotary clubs at the Newcastle country club Wednesday evening, when the Newcastle club played host, for agitation was started there which is likely to result in something tangible for Rushville.

The avowed purpose of the toastmaster, Mayor George Elliott of Newcastle, who is also president of the Rotary club there, announced at the opening of the short program following the dinner, was to interest the Rushville visitors in a country club, and he said that Newcastle Rotarians would not be satisfied if they did not send their guests away with a new vision of the mission of a country club.

Twenty-five Rushville Rotarians were most delightfully entertained and found the Newcastle brand of hospitality as good as any which may be found in the Hoosier domain. Some Rushville men left home at dawn yesterday and played golf all day, but the majority of the local Rotarians did not go until afternoon and spent a few hours at tennis and horse shoes.

The fried chicken dinner at seven o'clock, served in the spacious new clubhouse was by no means the least of the day's festivities. Following the dinner, the Rotarians joined in several songs, one being especially prepared by the Rushville club for the occasion.

George Elliott said that inasmuch as he was almost constantly in contact with the mayor of the city of Newcastle, he was authorized to say that Rushville Rotarians could come to Newcastle any time and turn out their tail lights upon entering the city limits if they chose.

A Rushville Rotarian, in making one of the happy responses indulged in by the guests, said that any New-

EVERY MERCHANT IN COUNTY IS INVITED

Invitation is Extended to Business Men of All Towns For Community Picnic Sept. 17

FARMERS WILL BE THE HOSTS

Every merchant in Rush county is invited to the community picnic which will be staged under the auspices of the Rush County Farmers association, at the city park Friday, September 17, it was announced today following the meeting of committee chairmen at the court house assembly room last night.

For fear that it would be misunderstood who was invited, the committee chairmen decided that it should be stated that not only business men of Rushville and their families will be guests, but every business man in every town in Rush county together with their families.

The farmers of Rush county will act as hosts on that day and will provide the dinner, which will be served under tents. The farmers will be grouped by townships. Every farmer who is a member of the county association, is expected to be present and have his family with him. Also any farmer who expects to become a member on that day is asked to attend and bring a basket of food with him.

The principal address will be delivered by John Napier Dyer of Vincennes, a practical farmer and a very capable speaker. Amusements will also be provided.

TOMORROW LAST DAY FOR MOVING

Voter Moving Out of His Franchise After Friday Will Lose The Right of Franchise

ALL READY FOR REGISTRATION

Precinct Officials Get Supplies at Auditor's Office—Many Women Ask For Blanks

Officials of the republican county central committee today called attention to the fact that Friday is the last day for a voter to move from one township to another without losing his or her vote, and also emphasizing that no voter should postpone registering until Saturday, October 4 when it can be done just as easily next Saturday.

The opinion seems to prevail in some quarters that a voter has to live in a township only thirty days before an election, but this is incorrect and may cause some men and women to lose their votes, it is feared by those who are at the head of the political organizations of the county. The law provides that the voter shall live in the precinct thirty days before the election and in the township sixty days.

It is pointed out that too much emphasis can not be placed on the necessity of registering Saturday. Though voters may not now intend to vote on November 2, there is no occasion for them not registering because there is a possibility that they might decide to vote before election day rolls around.

That a large majority of the women of the county will register is indicated by the large number of applications which have been made at the headquarters of both political parties for registration blanks.

Preparations are complete for registration. The head clerk of inspectors in each precinct have called at the auditor's office for their supplies and are prepared to go on duty at eight o'clock Saturday morning. The registration places will be at the same place where the election booths were located on the election two years ago. It will be possible to register until nine o'clock Saturday night.

It is evident that women will exercise their recently conferred franchise right and what is more, it is

DOUBLE HEADER TO BE PLAYED MONDAY

Tail Lights Will Meet New Salem and Arlington in Labor Day Celebration Here.

COUNTY FANS TO ATTEND

The Rushville Tail Lights are looking forward to winning three games here during the week end, when they play the Anderson Seftons here Sunday and then on Monday play a double header, meeting first the New Salem team and then the Arlington Red Sox.

The New Salem manager signed the contract last night to bring his strongest line-up here for the game on Labor Day, and by agreement the Tail Lights will play that team at 1:30 Monday afternoon, and immediately following will play the Red Sox.

Baseball fans from all parts of the county will be here Monday to take part in the county baseball day. It was first decided to let the winner of the first game play in the second game, but both outside teams wanted to play the Tail Lights, so it was agreed to stage a double header with the Tail Lights playing both contests.

The largest crowd in the history of baseball games in this city is expected to be here Monday. Plummer will pitch for Rushville against Arlington, and it is not decided upon who will pitch against New Salem. In the Sunday game, Byrne who is the catcher and third baseman, will probably start the game pitching for Rushville against the Anderson team.

TEACHERS MEET SATURDAY

Miss Ruth Sutton of Columbus to Have Physical Education

A meeting of the teachers of the Rushville public schools, which will open Monday, was announced today by Supt. J. H. The buildings have been cleaned and put in condition for the beginning of the fall term.

Supt. Scholl stated that Miss Ruth Sutton of Columbus, sister of A. H. Sutton, athletic coach, has been engaged to teach the fourth grade at the Graham Annex and will also do some work in physical education. She received her training for this work in state normal.

WOMAN APPLIES TO BECOME A CITIZEN

Miss Annie Geraghty, Subject of England, Who Has Lived Here 50 Years, Seeks Papers.

WILL ENTITLE HER TO VOTE

Miss Annie Geraghty, who lives at 933 North Main street, today applied with county clerk Loren Martin for naturalization papers, and promptly filled out the necessary papers for becoming a citizen of the United States, thus severing her allegiance to England.

The first papers will be sent to Washington and two years will elapse before the second application can be made. This is the first naturalization case for several years in this court. The papers were filled out without hesitancy on Miss Geraghty's part, and she even remembered the name of the vessel on which she came to this country fifty years ago.

Miss Geraghty gave her age as 63 years, and said that she was born in Lragocloy, Ireland, and was a subject of King George, the Fifth of England. She set sail for this country from Dublin, and arrived in New York on April 8, 1870, on the ship Nevada.

All foreign born citizens who have applied for their first papers, will be eligible to vote in the November election, providing that application has been made prior to October 4, the final day for registering.

CAN'T WIN BALL GAME WITH A ONE MAN TEAM

Senator Harding Draws Analogy Between National Sport and Government Affairs.

STRUCK OUT AT PARIS HE SAYS

(By United Press)

Marion, Ohio, Sept. 2—"You can't win a ball game with a one man team," declared Senator Warren G. Harding today, drawing an analogy between the government and baseball in a speech to the Chicago Cubs from his front porch here today.

Harding scored the Wilson administration, declaring "it mused disappointedly in our domestic affairs and then struck out at Paris."

"No one can dispute the American team played badly when it got on a foreign field," he said. "There was a meeting of the league officials where they sought to change the rules. The contending team tried a 'squeeze play' and expected to score six to one against the United States, but the American senate was ready with the ball at the plate and we are still flying our pennant which we won at home and abroad, and is respected throughout the world."

NOBLE FARMERS MEET SEPT. 14

The next meeting of the farmers of Noble township has been changed from Tuesday evening, September 7 to the following Tuesday, the 14th. The meeting will be held in the school building at New Salem.

WILL MEET HERE AGAIN NEXT YEAR

Civil War Veterans of 123rd Indiana Regiment Close Annual Reunion This Morning

PRAISE LOCAL HOSPITALITY

Resolutions Adopted and Officers Elected For Next Year—Six Deaths Within a Year

The Thirtieth Annual reunion of the survivors of the 123rd Indiana Volunteers, of Civil War Veterans, came to a close this morning in the assembly room of the court house, when the officers were elected, resolutions adopted and the next meeting place decided upon.

This city was again selected as the reunion place for next year, as all of the soldiers expressed praise for the entertainment that was tendered them while visiting in this city.

Luther Downey of this city was elected president of the organization, with Dan Kinney being first vice-president; J. G. Boys, second vice-president and W. A. Smith of Milroy, third vice-president. Mrs. William C. Morgan of this county was elected secretary and treasurer, and Jesse Miller of Indianapolis, chaplain.

Twenty-two former members of the regiment were here yesterday, and several other war veterans assisted in the meetings and entertainments. Yesterday afternoon the soldiers and their wives, widows and friends were all taken to the Princess theater, as the guests of the local chapter of the W. R. C.

The business session was transacted this morning and the following resolution was adopted: "Resolved that we hereby extend to the Woman's Relief Corps, and all others who helped provide and prepare such a sumptuous dinner and supper and all other entertainments, and express the same by a rising vote."

A memorial was adopted on account of the death of six of their members within the last year. The six who died since the former reunion were William Epperson, Jacob Shook, William S. Kaler, Noah Lee, Alexander Sherman and Wilbur Hitt. An obituary of Mr. Kaler was read at the meeting this morning. He had held the office of secretary and treasurer since the beginning of the custom of holding annual reunions of the regiment, and served for 29 years in that capacity.

The reunion was held last year at this time in the senate chamber of the state house, and the vote today was unanimous to return here next year for the annual reunion. The exact dates will be decided upon later.

The twenty-two members of the regiment that were here yesterday and today were:

Dan Kinney, Rushville; L. B. Downey, Rushville; B. P. Randel, Chicago, Ill., 6203 Langley Ave.; Lewis H. Smith, New Salem; F. T. Joliff, Benton Harbor; Joseph Endicott, Rushville; Jesse Miller, Connersville; Albert Johnson, Rushville; James M. Young, New Salem, R. 2; Jason B. Smith, Fairmont, Ind.; J. G. Boys, Rushville; W. A. STARVING MAYOR MAY LIVE A WEEK LONGER

Government is Providing Best Medical Attention For Hunger Striker in Brixton Prison.

19th DAY WITHOUT FOOD

(By United Press)

London, Sept. 2.—Government physicians reversed their recent prediction today and declared their belief that Terence MacSweney, who went on a hunger strike in Brixton prison would live for a week or ten days longer.

The government is providing the best medical experts possible and have declared officially that MacSweney will not be permitted to die from complications if science can prevent it. This is his nineteenth day without food.

Lord Stamfordham, private secretary to King George, has replied to a letter from Horatio Williams Bottomley, member of parliament, urging the release of MacSweney. He told Mr. Bottomley that, even if the king favored the release of the mayor of Cork, it would be effected only by the sovereign's personal action in the face of the advice of his ministers with the presumable result that they would resign. He said also that there was the farther risk that the "country at large might regard the price paid too high for the object obtained and blame the king for creating a grave political crisis at a time of special national stress and anxiety."

Hunger strikers at Mount Joy prison have arbitrated and began eating food this afternoon. Twenty hunger strikers at Brixton prison, however, continued their voluntary starvation and several have collapsed.

REFUSES SPECIAL SESSION

Governor of West Virginia Denies Aid For Women Voters

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 2.—Gov. John U. Cornwell, in a statement issued to-night, declared he would call no extra session of the Legislature to enact special legislation that women might vote in November in view of the fact that the Legislature had failed to act on his suggestion to pass such laws at the last session. It will be necessary, apparently, the statement said, to register the women voters at the two days' sitting of the state registrars.

The Governor said he deplored that the Legislature had failed to pass the necessary laws for the registration of women voters, and that he had no assurance that it would do so if an extra session were called.

"The Moon Riders" Mystic
It is not generally known that Art Acord, who is featured in "The Moon Riders," the Universal serial playing today at the Mystic Theatre, is the original "Buck" Parvin, around whom many tales of the west were written by the late Charles Van Loan. Through his connection Acord was starred in a series of "Buck" Parvin pictures produced by American.

During the war, he saw active service in France and was the winner of the coveted "Croix de Guerre." He was two years in that country, visiting practically every city, and he declared that "Paris was better guarded with M. P.'s than the front was with soldiers."

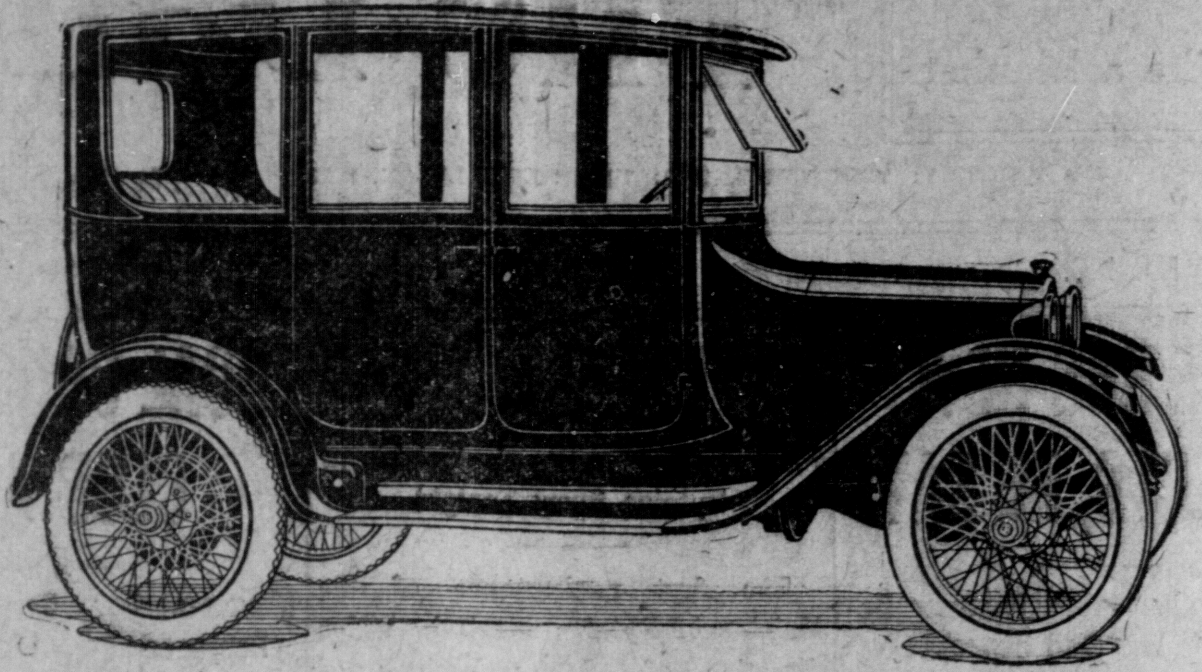

Art finds time from his movie work to compete in Rodeos, in which cowboys delight, and is the winner of many events, holding several records. He won the World's Championship, among others, in open competition at the "Stampede," held in New York four years ago.

Acord has played in support of such stars as Theda Bara, Elsie Janis and Fritz Scheff, appearing in many large productions, including, "Cleopatra," "Nearly a Lady," "Pretty Mrs. Smith," and others.

Before starting work on "The Moon Riders," Mr. Acord was featured in a series of Universal western productions and in that way gained quite a large following. He is twenty-eight years old and was born in Stillwater, Okla.

TOMORROW LAST DAY FOR MOVING

quite obvious that they intend to take a personal interest in the campaign and election.

The law requiring registration refers to women as well as to male voters. The law provides that registration may be effected either on September 4 or October 4. However, workers in both parties are centering their attention just now on the first registration day and are urging voters to enroll and thereby become qualified to cast their election ballots at the first opportunity which will be next Saturday. It is emphasized that registration is a necessary requirement to voting in this state and that to delay might possibly mean the loss of the vote.

While the registration boards will be in session in each of the thirty-one precincts in Rush county next Saturday it is not necessary for a voter to appear before the board in his or her precinct in person. The law provides that registration may be completed in advance by procuring a necessary blank and filling out the answers in the presence of a notary public or before two legal voters of the same precinct. This makes registration easy and convenient and there is no reason why any voter should neglect to comply with the law at the first opportunity.

There is another reason why registration should be completed as soon as possible, aside from the benefit to the voter. The names of all persons who register must be enrolled in the registration books of the precinct and these names are then copied by the county auditor. This is somewhat of a task and voters can aid the auditor in this work by registering on the first day. The second registration day is only twenty-nine days before the election and the time will then be short for compiling the official lists. Copies of the names are given to the county chairmen for use in checking up the poll.

It is stated that applications for registration may be written by lead pencil. There seemed to be some confusion as to where the names should be written in ink but the chairmen declare that a signature by lead pencil will suffice. However, as a matter of safety an indelible pencil should be used if possible.

The questions asked in the registration blanks are easily understood and no trouble is experienced in interpreting them. It is expected that thousands of Rush county voters will register Saturday and that hundreds of blanks will be sent to the precinct boards by messenger.

LOCAL COUNTRY CLUB AGITATED

castle Rotarian "may come to Rushville and turn out your tail light—if you want to, but we will not be responsible for what happens to you."

The true spirit of Rotary prevailed the whole meeting. Felicitations were passed back and forth and it was remarked by many of the speakers that the most kindly relations always existed between the two cities and should be fostered carefully.

Earl H. Payne, president of the Rushville club, responded to the short welcome address by Mayor Elliott and the toastmaster rotated in calling on members of both clubs to speak.

Ed Llewellyn, superintendent of the Newcastle schools and platform manager of the chautauqua here for three seasons, was introduced as the connecting link between the two cities and was frequently referred to as the "missing link."

Supt. Llewellyn said that the great trouble with the world was that too many people were wearing colored glasses and were not seeing things in their true light. He said that the Rotarians, in carrying out the ideals of the organization could accomplish wonderful things.

The talks were all impromptu and Rushville Rotarians called on were suggested by the local president. Short talks were made by Judge Will M. Sparks, Will O. Feudner and John A. Tittsworth, all of whom endorsed the country club idea and expressed the desire that one be organized in Rushville.

Judge Sparks moved that the Rushville club invite the Newcastle club to Rushville for the first meeting at the new Rushville club house and it was unanimously adopted by the local Rotarians.

Newcastle Rotarians who spoke were Walter S. Chambers, editor of the Newcastle Times, who explained how the Newcastle country club was organized; John McQuinn, manager of the Hoosier kitchen cabinet factory, and George Barnard, a Newcastle attorney who made the closing address.

Women and Registration

The woman who does not register Saturday and thus qualify herself to take advantage of her recent enfranchisement, is doing herself a very grave injustice because, regardless of what her opinion may be now with respect to voting, she may change her mind before November 2. And far be it from us to intimate that women are any more changeable than men.

But the woman who does not register may find it a source of great regret by election day. There is no woman who can turn over the leaves of the future and find what is contained therein. Little does she know what issue may arise in this campaign during the next two months. Some great moral question might develop, in which women would be especially interested, and that woman who had not prepared herself for the ballot by registering, would have failed in her duty to her community.

But aside from these considerations, women should register anyway. In the minds of some the question of cost has arisen. It is reported that they expect to escape paying a poll tax by not voting, but in his way they are mistaken because they pay such a tax for the privilege of voting, and if they do not take advantage of the opportunity to cast their ballot, it is no fault of the law.

Women now and always have been as much entitled to the ballot as men. Once they fully appreciate this and utilize their enfranchisement to improve conditions, they will doubtless be as ardent politicians as men have been. To vote they must register—either this coming Saturday or Saturday, October 2. They should settle the question now and have it over with. There is no occasion for waiting until October 2. Register now and come what may, they will be entitled to vote November 2. Registering is not binding in any way. It does not compel voting.

It should not be overlooked by some men who have not accepted enfranchisement in the right spirit, that interference with the rights of a voter might prove a very costly practice. There are federal laws to deal with persons who in any way hinder or prevent the exercise of the legal franchise which now has been extended to women.

It is common report that some men whose wives do not agree with them politically, have made the assertion that their wives shall never vote, if they do not vote according to their views. Such statements are not only unbecoming, but they are dangerous because federal statutes cover such cases thoroughly.

Secretary of War Baker has ordered army men to stay out of politics; Postmaster General Burleson has ordered postal employees to keep out of politics; and it is hoped that there will be no federal order preventing republicans to participate in the election.

Officials of the democratic national committee who testified before the senate campaign expenses committee, said they had no evidence to substantiate Gov. Cox's charges of a republican $15,000,000 "slush fund," but that they "still believed it."

What with recently ordering Indiana miners back, Pres. Lewis has ordered the Alabama miners out, which would seem to even up the odds.

The anthracite coal miners have accepted the wage awards of the scale committee and it is hoped that they acted without any mental reservations.

Mark Sullivan says that wet support is a harm to Cox, which it should be.

PLAN TO HAVE STATE BUREAU FOR SPEAKERS

By Plan Hundreds of Speakers Will be Listed to Offer Services to Legion in Patriotic Programs

GUARANTEE ALL EXPENSES

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 2—Plans for the organization of a state wide speakers bureau for the American Legion in Indiana were announced today by L. Russell Newgent, department adjutant. By the plan hundreds of speakers, who will offer their services to the Legion in its patriotic programs, will be listed, and copies of the list will be sent to all Legion posts of the state.

Each of the 304 local posts in the state, are asked to send to state headquarters name of persons in their communities who will be available for speeches when needed. These persons will be asked to serve without pay, but the Legion posts will guarantee all expenses for each speaker. Local posts in need of a man to conduct memorial exercises, to speak at programs observing patriotic days, etc., will then consult the list to obtain a speaker. It is the object to have the post obtain men who live as near their communities as possible.

Evil.

Evil is what the love of money is the root of.

The root is the lowest part, of course. There is less unanimity of opinion as to what is the height of evil.

If everything else thrived as well under opposition as evil does, this would be a far different world.

Evil is also what men do that lives after them, if Bill Shakespeare is to be depended on.

Somebody a long time ago labeled a lot of things "evil", and we have stuck to the labels pretty faithfully.

But most of the things they marked "evil" should have been placarded "foolishness."

People who exercise all the intelligence they have do nothing that is really evil.

And they have a fine time, with no big heads, or next mornings or other popular brands of hang-over.

Most of the time when we ask, "Is it right?" we could get the answer more suddenly if we said:

"Is it intelligent?"

Many things once labeled evil are not so.

We were brought up to believe that card playing is evil, intrinsically.

Also dancing—gee, whiz! Dancing was the worst thing there was!

Murder was a Sunday school exercise compared with it.

If one plays cards when one should be and could be doing something helpful and necessary, it is wrong.

So would corn hoeing or onion weeding be, if you were neglecting something more important for it.

Also dancing.

Although we do believe it wrong for anybody to do it as badly as we do.

A dancing teacher told us so, once. This isn't all we know about evil.

But it's all we're going to tell here.

"Some Shoes"

Folks, school time is here and you, of course, will be in the market for shoes. I am nicely fixed to give you good shoes at good prices.

You have seen in the papers that shoes will be cheaper for Fall—such is the case, but with this explanation due the trade: When shoe merchants contracted for Fall shoes last February, prices had advanced at least 20 per cent over one year ago. However, in the meantime, the leather prices broke, and shoe manufacturers of repute changed prices on orders equal to the amount of the break in the leather market, which gives you the same merchandise as last year at practically last year's prices.

HISTORY

By George Matthews Adams

HISTORY is a marvelous Teacher. From her pages speak events, experiences and thrilling deeds—all products of the human Brain.

You are now playing a part of the future History of the World.

Even the humblest man or woman has his part to play. And the part played must needs be recorded.

The work of your days and life—whether for good or ill, in its final summing up—is as sure to mark or influence some phase of the entire History of Histories, as each act you perform today is sure to give color and form to the final results of today.

Yes—you are now playing a part of the future History of the World.

It is the realization of this truth by men and women that inspires some to become great and notable while others remain obscure. For just as soon as people wake up to the fact that Responsibility presses down upon them, they begin to draw upon their Reserve Power. And it is Reserve Power that helps make History fascinating.

You are now playing a part of the future History of the World.

It is not necessary, however, nor is it possible for us all to become notable in History. History is universal. And so is the Mind that makes up the human Soul. You—doing your work in the best way you know how—are as great an element in History as Alexander, or Washington, or Cromwell or such as they. Study History. It will arouse you to big deeds. Live as you would like to have History say you lived.

CONGRESS AGAINST ALCOHOL TO MEET

Governor to Appoint Official Delegates For Indiana to Attend Meeting Held in Washington in Sept.

FIRST MEETING SINCE 1913

Congress to be Noteworthy Because it is First to be Held in Country Where Alcohol is Prohibited

Washington, Sept. 2.—Governor James P. Goodrich has been invited by the state department to appoint official delegates from Indiana for the meeting here September 21 to 26 of the Fifteenth International Congress against Alcoholism, which will be held in this country this year for the first time since it was organized in 1880. The meeting will be under the auspices of the State Department and sessions will be held at the Pan-American building.

The full program for the six days of the Congress was announced yesterday. It includes addresses by many of the most famous scientists in the world, the congress being concerned almost exclusively with the scientific phase of the subject.

This year's congress is the first to be convened since that held in Milan, Italy, in 1913, the world war having prevented an earlier meeting. Under the original plans the fifteenth congress was to have been held in 1915.

The fifteenth congress will be noteworthy because of the fact that it is first to be held in a country where the traffic in alcoholic liquor is prohibited by law. A special study will be made of the effect of prohibition in the United States and the effect of the great war in connection with alcoholism in various countries will also be given special attention. Several new discoveries in the relations of alcoholism to heredity and to mental and nervous diseases will be announced for the first time.

The meeting is under the official auspices of the United States government and invitations have been issued to every country with which it maintains diplomatic relations. To date, 31 have signified their acceptance. The official reception to delegates will be held in the evening of the opening day of the congress at the Capitol, and will include the presentation of a pageant illustrating America's progress in the world battle against alcoholism.

The president of the permanent international committee of the congress is the prime minister of the Netherlands, Jonkheer Charles Ruys

WHITE SOX HAVE HALL MARK OF CHAMPIONS

Chicago Team Despite Cripples and Short Stellar Staff of Pitchers Have Magic Line of Quality

ARE WEAK AT FIRST BASE

Chicago, Sept. 2.—The Chicago White Sox, crippled and short a stellar staff of pitchers, have one hall-mark of championship. Perhaps this mark explains why a club, apparently fatally weak in vital points, has kept up in the race the last two years.

The hall-mark is the straight line from catcher to centerfield. If any club ever justified the ancient theory or superstition that that straight line means a good club, the Sox have done it.

Roy Schalk, the most spectacular if not the best catcher in the game; three better-than-ordinary pitchers in Cicotte, Williams and Kerr to take the box; Eddie Collins the perennial peer of second basemen, and "Hap" Felsch probably the surest outfielder in the major leagues—those men comprise the miracle line.

The Sox are not so weak as appears at first glance. Their third baseman, Buck Weaver, must be ranked with the greatest. "Swede" Risberg as a shortstop is coming fast offensively and defensively and in Joe Jackson the Sox have one of the big berthas of the game.

The weakness has been a shortage of regularly winning pitchers and at first base. The defection of Chick Gandil robbed the Sox of a clever fielder and a dangerous hitter. His place has been taken this year by Ted Jourdan, a flashy fielder but hardly of big league class as a batter, and John Collins, outfielder.

de Beerenbrouck, of The Hague. The American executive committee, appointed by the Secretary of State, consists of Edwin C. Dinwiddie, of Washington, D. C.; Dr. Charles Seaton, of Pittsburgh; the Rev. Dr. Rufus W. Miller, of Philadelphia; Ernest H. Cherrington, of Ohio; the Rev. P. J. O'Callaghan of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Suessa B. Blaine, Washington, D. C., and Bishop James Cannon, Jr., Richmond, Va.

The program has three divisions, scientific, economic and social, but the congress itself is a scientific body interested in the study of alcoholism as a disease and is officially proclaimed as being without prejudice for or against any particular method of dealing with the problem. A number of national and international organizations and societies will hold meetings here during the meeting of the congress.

OVERSUBSCRIPTION HAILED AS VICTORY

Irish Republic Loan Was Started in Ireland and Subscriptions Were Heavy

REPORT A LIST OF ARRESTS

So Effective Was Policy of Suppression The Campaign Was Almost Abandoned

(By United Press.)

London, Aug. 16. (By Mail)—Oversubscription by £50,000 of the Irish Republic loan which Eamonn de Valera promoted in the United States has been hailed by Sinn Fein as a victory of "the popular will over intense military aggression."

It was planned to raise £250,000 by the loan. A campaign was started in Ireland a year ago, and subscriptions there as well as in the United States were heavy. The campaign was continued until a few weeks ago, when it was announced that the loan had been largely oversubscribed despite what Sinn Fein claimed were superhuman efforts of the British government in Ireland to suppress it.

In an announcement of the success of the loan, the Sinn Fein propaganda department recited a list of scores of arrests, raids and imprisonments by the Royal Irish Constabulary in the futile effort to prevent the raising of money, as the loan announcements said, for "agricultural and industrial development," and for financing the Dail Eireann constructive program.

From the time the loan started there were frequent arrests of alleged promoters, the bulletin claimed. Meetings in favor of the loan were raided, and newspapers which advocated it or accepted advertisements in its interest were suppressed. At various times, all Ireland was placarded by night with loan posters which the police promptly removed the next day. Many instances of arrests of individuals are cited, with consequent imprisonment at hard labor, for working in the interest of the loan or even for being found with loan propaganda. In one case cited in the bulletin as typical, a man was arrested for not having in his possession a loan prospectus. Many of the men arrested were members of Parliament.

So effective was the policy of suppression, the Sinn Fein announcement states, that just before the completion of the loan the campaign in its behalf was almost abandoned. Despite this, the subscriptions continued to a successful finish.

WOMAN OFFICIATES AT WEDDING SERVICE

Novelty is Provided in London When Miss Maude Royden Performs a Wedding Ceremony

NEW FASHION FOR LONDON

(By United Press) London (By Mail)—A new fashion in weddings lately introduced gives the woman ecclesiast an opportunity to officiate.

The novelty was provided by the marriage of Douglas Sladen, the author, to Miss Christian Dorothea Duthie. The actual wedding contract was signed and sealed in a registry office—or marriage license bureau—and afterwards in Sladen's garden, the guests were invited to hear "an address by Miss Maude Royden".

Under a tree Miss Royden held a service in the presence of the married couple and invited guests, and afterwards read, as he styled it, "the finest poem on love in the world". (1. John, Chapter 4.) Then followed a short address having for its theme family love and the position of love in the world, the proceedings being closed with the Lord's Prayer and the benediction. Miss Royden, who it will be remembered preached at Geneva during the Women's Congress, was in cassock and biretta, but the remaining guests had been notified "No presents; no wedding garments."

The bridegroom is in his 65th year, but the bride is well under 30.

MRS. HARDING IS GOOD CAMPAIGNER

May be Seen Almost Any Day Greeting Strangers Who Stop to See Presidential Nominee

GOOD ON THE HANDSHAKING

When Campaign Ends She Will Probably Hold the Championship For Shaking Hands

By RAYMOND CLAPPER (U. P. Staff Correspondent) Marion, O., Sept. 2.—The front porch handshaking record probably will be held by Mrs. Warren G. Harding instead of her candidate husband, if she keeps up her present pace throughout the presidential campaign.

As an understudy to the nominee, Mrs. Harding is rapidly outdoing him when it comes to greeting the scores of visitors and sending them away with the thrill that comes once in a life time.

While Harding is cooped up in his little office here wrestling with ponderous issues or studying his political chess board, out in the front yard is Mrs. Harding in cool white linen or a simple dark dress taking care of the visitors.

Dozens drive up in automobiles, tourists on long overland trips. They pull up to the curb cautiously wondering whether the lone policeman on guard will permit them to stop. He usually has his back turned talking to some local old timer and the tourists, bundled in veils, and dusters peer timidly out over the luggage debating whether they dare try to see Senator Harding.

Mrs. Harding, who probably has been pulling weeds out of a flower box on the porch, looks up and sees them. She hurries out to the curb, leans over the side of the car and tells them she would like to have them meet the senator and would they be good enough to wait until she runs in "to see if Warren can come out". She comes back and is so sorry that Mr. Harding can't get away right now but he would like very much to see them and would they come back about noon. The tourists tell her where they are going and in two minutes she knows all about them and who is looking after the chickens while they are gone.

She would like to have them come up on the porch and talk a while but she sees some other people pulling up and she must see what they want, and she is so glad they came by and won't they come back again and meet Mr. Harding?

And after ten hours of it when the Senator is tired out and thinking about going to bed Mrs. Harding is probably standing out under the street light in front of the house talking Indiana politics with the nightwatchman.

British Statement Indicates Russian Menace is Removed

If the Polish claims of the "annihilation" of Bunyos' army is borne out, it promptly removes the greatest Russian menace on the Polish front.

Even at the time all other Bolshevik forces were retreating, the famous cavalry leader held his line and only recently began a drive to encircle Lemberg from the north, which the Poles admitted was progressing to their dissatisfaction.

Boy Scout troops are to be formed and attached to the fire houses in Passaic, N. J. Commissioner Preiskel says:

"Boy Scout troops are to be formed and attached to the fire houses in Passaic, N. J. We want as many troops of Boy Scouts formed in our fire houses as can be accommodated. I want to offer a prize to the fire house developing the best troop. We want to set the pace and maintain a lead on all other municipalities and really 'do things' in scouting."

"I cannot think of any work a man could have in which he would be more privileged or be able to render a greater telling service, than the work of assisting in the training of the youth."

The troops attached to the fire houses will be specially trained in the prevention of fires, handling of rope lines, etc. Special requirements will be adopted for this branch of the work, with the possibility of the adoption of special insignia for the scouts who become members of such troops.

GERMANY TURNS DOWN PROPOSALS OF BOTH

Foreign Minister Says They Refuse Offer to Cooperate With Entente or Russians.

HE CREATES A SENSATION

(By United Press)

Berlin, Sept. 2.—Germany has refused proposals of both the Russian and entente to join in a war against the other, Foreign Minister Simons declared today.

In outlining the government's policy regarding Russia to the committee on foreign affairs, Simons said he had been urged to cooperate with the Bolsheviks against the entente and break the treaty of Versailles.

After mature deliberation the proposals were rejected, said Simons. The foreign minister caused a sensation by declaring that Germany had also been urged to join the entente against the Russians. This was also refused, he said.

No power warring upon the Soviet need count upon our support the foreign minister said. We recognize the Soviet holds the reign of power in Russia and thus forms a defunct government.

Simons said that any attempt to co-operate with France or Poland against Russia would immediately plunge Germany into eternal warfare. Likewise any attempt to co-operate with Russia would make Germany a battle ground, he said.

Moore said that if the republican would just come out and tell the truth about raising the money the would have nothing to fear. They have committed no crime by simply raising a large sum of money. ## FAVORS ENGLISH AS TONGUE OF WORLD

German Wireless Expert Says Language Only Great Barrier to Swift Movement of International Ideas

MANY NATIONS TO OBJECT

Graf Arco Believe Popular Vote However Would Elect The English Tongue to be Used Generally

By FRANK LEHNHOFF
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Berlin, August 20 (By Mail)—English is favored in Germany as the international language that it is admitted will be almost a necessity for use in world communication when wireless telegraphy and wireless telephony have been made thoroughly practical.

Besides difficulties of transmission, of long distance messages, most of which have now been overcome by use of high frequency stations, Graf Arco, Germany's wireless authority, in an interview with the United Press declared most trouble in complete interchange of ideas in the future may be found in the present use of so many languages.

"While I am an enthusiastic Esperantist," said Arco, "I believe a popular vote would elect the English tongue to be used generally in the transaction of business and transmission of news, because it is now spoken by the largest group of people on the globe.

"Naturally, there are many nations that would raise objection to the use of English as the world language on account of the belief that the study of it would kill their own nationality. Such fears, however, are unfounded, because in each land the mother tongue would be taught, plus English for international transactions.

Apocryph of the beginning of work on stations that will carry electric currents by wireless between Germany and Argentina, Graf Arco said:

"Wireless telegraphy has reached a stage of development in which previous difficulties encountered in long distance transmission have now been overcome. The greatest distance now practical is an earth quadrant or 10,000 kilometers. The chief difficulty hitherto encountered was with the transmitting station, but high frequency machines have been developed, so that now this trouble no longer occurs.

"As a result, the proposed connection with Argentina will be virtually perfect. Germans and Argentinians have collected practically all the necessary capital, so that the erection of the oversea apparatus could already be undertaken."

Graf Arco is optimistic as to the future of wireless telegraphy—and also wireless telephony—particularly if the nations will undertake a broadscale international regulation of the traffic so as to avoid transmission and receiving difficulties arising from too many stations sending in conflicting directions or at improper times.

He pointed out that about 60,000 words can be transmitted daily by a wireless station, whereas with cables there is a considerable delay from the fact that, since the war, roundabout routes must be followed.

He held that, with wireless telephony, greater difficulties exist than with telegraphy, but tests made daily at the big Nauen station have proven that wireless telephone messages can be picked up from all quarters of Europe.

Nauen is waiting an opportunity to demonstrate that conversations are possible with America. Fifteen years ago, Graf Arco, as an April Fool joke, painted a supposed wireless telephone speech between America and Germany.

"Today, however, what was once merely an April Fool Joke is today merely a question of need and of profitability," he added. Incidentally, he related how recently he had heard the Dutch Indies distinctly through the wireless phone.

WANT TO GET BULK OF RUSSIAN TRADE

Economic Authorities See in Russia a Future Golden Business Opportunity For Country

FEAR A STRATEGIC POSITION

Germany Proposes to be in "on The Ground Floor" Once Business Does Open With Russia

By CARL D. Groat
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Berlin, July .8 (By Mail).— Though some German officials concerned with Russian affairs look skeptically for the moment upon trade possibilities with Russia, certain economic authorities including Food Minister Schmidt see in Russia a future golden business opportunity for Germany.

And, while one group of officials scoffs at the Russian claims as to ability to deliver goods to the rest of the world, another group is carefully planning for the later conquest of the East.

Germany feels that she is in a strategic position to get a generous share of the Russian trade, and is inclined to think that in the long run she can outstrip England (America and France in this field).

Minister Schmidt's views of the situation as expressed to the Wirtschaftsrat are a clear indicator of the German feeling about the problem.

"With respect to our ability to compete on the world market, we will have no easy position in the future," he said. "We will soon have a sharp competition, especially with America. The concentration of all financial power in the United States as it developed during the war must lead directly to formulation of world trusts. England also has assembled strong forces within itself.

"Greater prospects are offered us through approaches to the East. The Russian market offers many possibilities for trade relations with us. It concerns us as one of the nearest markets in which we have, as far as England and America are concerned, the indisputable advantage of a more favorable territorial situation."

Incidentally, Schmidt viewed Germany's industrial situation as approaching a crisis inasmuch as foreign demand has decreased with the increase of prices and improvement of the mark, but he was inclined to believe that the present difficulties would be remedied if all factories would apply proper methods and if import and export were correctly controlled by the govern-

Meantime, it is significant that Russia is pursuing a systematic campaign as respects future trade relations. Establishment of an agency here under Wigdor Kopp, followed by Krassin's visit to London are known to be part of a carefully planned scheme whether Russia should plant her business relations again in foreign lands.

Germany, as previously pointed out, takes with a grain of salt the astounding figures of what Russia is able at this moment to export, pointing out that transportation facilities are lacking for such undertakings—even if the supplies are at hand. And, Russian experts here are inclined to believe that there is considerable romancing as to what Russia has on hand for export.

However, while some officials take this attitude, business men and many government authorities are overlooking no bets.

Germany proposes to be in "on the ground floor" once business does open with Russia. There are many German business men who know the Russian language and customs from long pre-war experience, and they count this knowledge as an asset which America and England possess in a far lesser degree.

The German business man regards Russia as "virgin territory" at this time. That is to say, he realizes that its wartime exhaustion plus the ravages of economic disintegration under Bolshevism will make it a fruitful field for the outside world. And, with this knowledge, he hopes to be able to get a lead in the business race once that gets under way. He does not underestimate the strength of his opponent—England—who is also trying to get the inside track.

Frames Should Fit The Face

Correctly fitting frames are almost as important as correctly ground lenses. Therefore we take particular pains to make sure that the frames fit the face perfectly.

The center of the glasses should come exactly opposite the pupils of the eyes. The glasses should not be too wide or too narrow. The bridge should fit the nose so well that wobbling will be impossible.

We are experts in the proper fitting of glasses and our skill is at your service. If the glasses you now wear do not fit perfectly bring them to us for adjustment.

PONZI INQUIRY GOES INTO AID OF POLICE

Members of Boston Force and Their Wives Are Alleged to Have Acted as His Agents

TOOK NEW ACCOUNTS TO HIM

Boston, Sept. 2.—The activities of four police inspectors, a lieutenant and several patrolmen as agents of Charles Ponzi are under investigation to-day and the police authorities are said to have found that police officers of various ranks who were interested in taking hundreds of new accounts to the "Wizard's" offices derived therefrom commissions running into the thousands.

It is further charged that wives and other relatives of police officers solicited and secured a considerable number of clients in the Ponzi undertaking.

At least a score of persons, some of them once connected with the business, and others, including persons prominent in the city, have been called to testify as to their knowledge of Charles Ponzi's assets, at the resumption of the hearing on the involuntary bankruptcy proceedings. Among the number are several who have not been mentioned heretofore in connection with "the wizard's" financial collapse.

A sharp notice has been sent to Mrs. Ponzi to the effect that she must turn over the high priced automobile she has retained, without further delay. One woman note holder has called upon the receivers to remove Mrs. Ponzi, Mrs. Ponzi's sister and Ponzi's mother from the home without delay.

The arrest of a few of the agents of the Ponzi organization and of the Old Colony Foreign Exchange Company, the rival concern, has caused several former agents of the two companies to turn over varying sums of money, which they say represent commissions received during the period of their activities.

The Economy of Using Goodyear Small Car Tires

So-called bargain tires, made up for sensational sales and offered at ridiculously low prices, do not attract careful buyers.

They are far more concerned with what they get than with what they pay because they know that in the end it is performance and not price that delivers actual tire economy.

The popularity of Goodyear Tires, of the 30x3-, 30x3½- and 31x4-inch sizes, is based on the fact that they deliver exceptional mileage at exceedingly low cost.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car taking these sizes, go to your nearest Service Station for Goodyear Tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes.

30 x 3½ Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread $23.50

30 x 3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost no more than the price you are asked to pay for tubes of less merit—why risk costly casings when such sure protection is available? 30 x 3½ size in waterproof bag $4.50

MOORE HAS NEW FACTS, HE SAYS

Gov. Cox's Convention Manager Declares He Will Tell Committee of "Secret System"

SENATE PROBES ADJOURN

Summons Issued For Names of G. O. P. Regional Directors and Records Kept by Blair

(By United Press)

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 2.—The workings of a great "secret system" of campaign fund collections by the republican party will be laid before the senate "slush fund" investigators here next week, E. H. Moore, Governor Cox's manager at the San Francisco convention, predicted today shortly after his arrival to present new evidence supporting Gov. Cox's charges against the G. O. P. leaders.

Moore was prevented from beginning his disclosures today when the committee adjourned until next Tuesday. Adjournment was taken because several members of the committee had important speaking engagements outside of Chicago.

In the meantime a summons had gone to republican headquarters here for submission to the committee of names of all "regional financial directors" and all records kept by Henry Blair, assistant to Treasurer Fred Upham.

It is upon the alleged activities of Blair and "regional directors" that Moore's evidence rests.

"The committee," said Moore, "will be given leads, which if followed will disclose a vast system, within a system, a secret plan of money raising designed to produce a great sum."

"There was one system of ways and means committees throughout the states which operated under Upham's direction and which the public was not let in on. But besides that was a secret system under Blair's direction, made up of regional workers who organized teams and team captains and conducted a drive for funds."

"This secret organization made up quotas not only for states but for cities," declared Moore.

"Upham and Hays denied at first that there were any quotas at all. Then they were forced to admit that there were state but they still denied there are city quotas as charged by Governor Cox at Pittsburg."

"This committee if it will, can find out all about those city quotas. They were fixed just as Governor Cox read them at Pittsburg."

Part of Moore's evidence consisted of a form, which he said comprised instructions sent out by Blair to the money raisers in the alleged "secret organization."

"This form," said Moore, "is conclusive evidence of the plans that are made and followed. It contains a specific injunction to secrecy, cautioning workers not to leave anything lying around on tables at luncheons held for the purpose of comparing notes and making plans. It further provides for the 'cream list' of which Governor Cox told, he said."

"This list was to be made up of 20 or 25 good prospects in a community and a special favor was to be

REPORTS LOSS OF 3 DOGS

Bert Davison Sustains Loss of $225 Through Thefts

Bert Davison, who lives south of Rushville, was in the city today reporting the loss of three valuable poon dogs that have recently been stolen from his farm. A few days ago two of the dogs were taken from the barn, and this morning, while the family was in Shelbyville attending the fair, the mother of several pups, and a valuable dog, was taken from the barn in which they were kept. Each of the dogs was valued at $75, making a total loss in a few days of $225. Local officers were asked to watch for the dogs, and a search of the county was being conducted this afternoon.

HENRY COUNTY GRAND JURY TO INVESTIGATE

FRANK ELLIS STILL IN JAIL

The Henry county grand jury will be called into session Monday to investigate the killing of William Hart, 19, near Knightstown Monday. Frank Ellis, who dealt young Hart the fatal blow on the head, is being held in the county jail without bond, awaiting the outcome of the jury investigation.

Coroner F. J. Drake, who was in Newcastle, yesterday, was unwilling to state the exact wording of his verdict, but indicated that it would be "homicide from injuries received when struck on the head with a club held in the hands of Ellis." Both Coroner Drake and Acting Prosecutor John M. Morris were of the opinion that it was a matter for the grand jury to pass upon, and that nothing could be done until that body had investigated.

There has been considerable agitation in Knightstown and Wayne township for the release of Ellis on bond. However, when visited by Acting Prosecutor Morris yesterday, Ellis expressed his willingness to remain in jail until the grand jury investigates and stated that he did not wish to complicate matters in an endeavor to secure freedom.

SURETY OF PEACE CHARGE PREFERRED

ACCOUNT SUIT IS FILED

Fred Dunn, a resident of Arlington, who is employed in a local factory, was placed in jail yesterday afternoon on a surety of peace charge, which was preferred by his wife. Dunn will remain in jail until Saturday morning at nine o'clock, at which time he will be given a trial. His bond for appearance has been placed at $400, which was not provided. Dunn denied having any trouble with his wife, which would cause her to file a charge against him.

Will H. Robbins, a wholesale dealer of Greensburg filed suit against M. J. Mascari, a local merchant, demanding $177.71 on an account which Robbins allege is uncollectable. The amount is a balance due on a car load of watermelons, according to the complaint.

This case will come up for trial Monday morning at nine o'clock. Both cases were filed in Squire Steech's court.

WOOL CLIP SHIPPED

The wool clip of many members of the Rush County Farmers association was being shipped to Chicago for storage yesterday and today. One car was loaded Wednesday and another car was being loaded today. The wool growers decided to store their clip for a higher market.

LOCAL COUNTRY CLUB AGITATED

Movement For Organization Here Proposed at Joint Meeting of Rotary Clubs

NEWCASTLE CLUB IS HOST

Twenty-five Rushville Rotarians Enjoy Hospitality and Break Bread With Rose City Men

A country club for Rushville may be the outgrowth of the joint meeting of Newcastle and Rushville Rotary clubs at the Newcastle country club Wednesday evening, when the Newcastle club played host, for agitation was started there which is likely to result in something tangible for Rushville.

The avowed purpose of the toastmaster, Mayor George Elliott of Newcastle, who is also-president of the Rotary club there, announced at the opening of the short program following the dinner, was to interest the Rushville visitors in a country club, and he said that Newcastle Rotarians would not be satisfied if they did not send their guests away with a new vision of the mission of a country club.

Twenty-five Rushville Rotarians were most delightfully entertained and found the Newcastle brand of hospitality as good as any which may be found in the Hoosier domain. Some Rushville men left home at dawn yesterday and played golf all day, but the majority of the local Rotarians did not go until afternoon and spent a few hours at tennis and horse shoes.

The fried chicken dinner at seven o'clock, served in the spacious new clubhouse was by no means the least of the day's festivities. Following the dinner, the Rotarians joined in several songs, one being especially prepared by the Rushville club for the occasion.

George Elliott said that inasmuch as he was almost constantly in contact with the mayor of the city of Newcastle, he was authorized to say that Rushville Rotarians could come to Newcastle any time and turn out their tail lights upon entering the city limits if they chose.

A Rushville Rotarian, in making one of the happy responses indulged in by the guests, said that any Newcastle Rotarian would be glad to

EVERY MERCHANT IN COUNTY IS INVITED

Invitation is Extended to Business Men of All Towns For Community Picnic Sept. 17

FARMERS WILL BE THE HOSTS

Every merchant in Rush county is invited to the community picnic which will be staged under the auspices of the Rush County Farmers association, at the city park Friday, September 17, it was announced today following the meeting of committee chairmen at the court house assembly room last night.

For fear that it would be misunderstood who was invited, the committee chairmen decided that it should be stated that not only business men of Rushville and their families will be guests, but every business man in every town in Rush county together with their families.

The farmers of Rush county will act as hosts on that day and will provide the dinner, which will be served under tents. The farmers will be grouped by townships. Every farmer who is a member of the county association, is expected to be present and have his family with him. Also any farmer who expects to become a member on that day is asked to attend and bring a basket of food with him.

The principal address will be delivered by John Napier Dyer of Vincennes, a practical farmer and a very capable speaker. Amusements will also be provided.

TOMORROW LAST DAY FOR MOVING

Voter Moving Out of His Franchise After Friday Will Lose The Right of Franchise

ALL READY FOR REGISTRATION

Precinct Officials Get Supplies at Auditor's Office—Many Women Ask For Blanks

Officials of the republican county central committee today called attention to the fact that Friday is the last day for a voter to move from one township to another without losing his or her vote, and also emphasizing that no voter should postpone registering until Saturday, October 4 when it can be done just as easily next Saturday.

The opinion seems to prevail in some quarters that a voter has to live in a township only thirty days before an election, but this is incorrect and may cause some men and women to lose their votes, it is feared by those who are at the head of the political organizations of the county. The law provides that the voter shall live in the precinct thirty days before the election and in the township sixty days.

It is pointed out that too much emphasis can not be placed on the necessity of registering Saturday. Though voters may not now intend to vote on November 2, there is no occasion for them not registering because there is a possibility that they might decide to vote before election day rolls around.

That a large majority of the women of the county will register is indicated by the large number of applications which have been made at the headquarters of both political parties for registration blanks.

Preparations are complete for registration. The head clerk of inspectors in each precinct have called at the auditor's office for their supplies and are prepared to go on duty at eight o'clock Saturday morning. The registration places will be at the same place where the election booths were located on the election two years ago. It will be possible to register until nine o'clock Saturday night.

It is evident that women will exercise their recently conferred franchise right and what is more, it is

DOUBLE HEADER TO BE PLAYED MONDAY

Tail Lights Will Meet New Salem and Arlington in Labor Day Celebration Here

COUNTY FANS TO ATTEND

The Rushville Tail Lights are looking forward to winning three games here during the week end, when they play the Anderson Setons here Sunday and then on Monday play a double header, meeting first the New Salem team and then the Arlington Red Sox.

The New Salem manager signed the contract last night to bring his strongest line-up here for the game on Labor Day, and by agreement the Tail Lights will play that team at 1:30 Monday afternoon, and immediately following will play the Red Sox.

Baseball fans from all parts of the county will be here Monday to take part in the county baseball day. It was first decided to let the winner of the first game play in the second game, but both outside teams wanted to play the Tail Lights, so it was agreed to stage a double header with the Tail Lights playing both contests.

The largest crowd in the history of baseball games in this city is expected to be here Monday. Plummer will pitch for Rushville against Arlington, and it is not decided upon who will pitch against New Salem in the Sunday game. Byrne, who is the catcher and third baseman, will probably start the game pitching for Rushville against the Anderson Setons.

TEACHERS MEET SATURDAY

Miss Ruth Sutton of Columbus to Have Physical Education

A meeting of the teachers of the Rushville public schools, which will open Monday, was announced today by Supt. J. H. Scholl for Saturday afternoon at three o'clock at the Graham high school building. Reorganization for the coming school will be discussed at the teachers meeting. The buildings have been cleaned and put in condition for the beginning of the fall term.

Supt. Scholl stated that Miss Ruth Sutton of Columbus, sister of A. H. Sutton, athletic coach, has been engaged to teach the fourth grade at the Graham Annex and will also do some work in physical education. She received her training for this work in state normal.

WOMAN APPLIES TO BECOME A CITIZEN

Miss Annie Geraghty, Subject of England, Who Has Lived Here 50 Years, Seeks Papers.

WILL ENTITLE HER TO VOTE

Miss Annie Geraghty, who lives at 933 North Main street, today applied with county clerk Loren Martin for naturalization papers, and promptly filled out the necessary papers for becoming a citizen of the United States, thus severing her allegiance to England.

The first papers will be sent to Washington and two years will elapse before the second application can be made. This is the first naturalization case for several years in this court. The papers were filled out without hesitancy on Miss Geraghty's part, and she even remembered the name of the vessel on which she came to this country fifty years ago.

Miss Geraghty gave her age as 63 years, and said that she was born in Limerick, Ireland, and was a subject of King George, the Fifth of England. She set sail for this country from Dublin, and arrived in New York on April 8, 1870, on the ship Nevada.

All foreign born citizens who have applied for their first papers, will be eligible to vote in the November election, providing that application has been made prior to October 4, the final day for registering.

CAN'T WIN BALL GAME WITH A ONE MAN TEAM

Senator Harding Draws Analogy Between National Sport and Government Affairs.

STRUCK OUT AT PARIS HE SAYS

(By United Press)

Marion, Ohio, Sept. 2.—"You can't win a ball game with a one man team," declared Senator Warren G. Harding today, drawing an analogy between the government and baseball in a speech to the Chicago Cubs from his front porch here today.

Harding scored the Wilson administration, declaring "it muddled and disappointed in our domestic affairs and then struck out at Paris."

"No one can dispute the American team played badly when it got on a foreign field," he said. "There was a meeting of the league officials where they sought to change the rules. The contending team tried a 'squeeze play' and expected to score six to one against the United States, but the American senate was ready with the ball at the plate and we are still trying our pennant which we won at home and abroad, and is respected throughout the world."

MOORE FARMERS MEET SEPT. 14

The next meeting of the farmers of Noble township has been changed from Tuesday evening, September 7 to the following Tuesday, the 14th. The meeting will be held in the school building at New Salem.

WILL MEET HERE AGAIN NEXT YEAR

Civil War Veterans of 123rd Indiana Regiment Close Annual Reunion This Morning

PRAISE LOCAL HOSPITALITY

Resolutions Adopted and Officers Elected For Next Year—Six Deaths Within a Year

The Thirtieth Annual reunion of the survivors of the 123rd Indiana Volunteers, of Civil War Veterans, came to a close this morning in the assembly room of the court house, when the officers were elected, resolutions adopted and the next meeting place decided upon.

This city was again selected as the reunion place for next year, as all of the soldiers expressed praise for the entertainment that was tendered them while visiting in this city.

Luther Downey of this city was elected president of the organization, with Dan Kinney being first vice-president; J. G. Boys, second vice-president and W. A. Smith of Milroy, third vice-president. Mrs. William C. Morgan of this county was elected secretary and treasurer, and Jesse Miller of Indianapolis, chaplain.

Twenty-two former members of the regiment were here yesterday, and several other war veterans assisted in the meetings and entertainments. Yesterday afternoon the soldiers and their wives, widows and friends were all taken to the Princess theater, as the guests of the local chapter of the W. R. C.

The business session was transacted this morning and the following resolution was adopted: "Resolved that we hereby extend to the Woman's Relief Corps, and all others who helped provide and prepare such a sumptuous dinner and supper and all other entertainments, and express the same by a rising vote."

A memorial was adopted on account of the death of six of their members within the last year. The six who died since the former reunion were William Epperson, Jacob Shook, William S. Kaler, Noah Lee, Alexander Sherman and Wilbur Hill. An obituary of Mr. Kaler was read at the meeting this morning. He had held the office of secretary and treasurer since the beginning of the custom of holding annual reunions of the regiment, and served for 20 years in that capacity.

The reunion was held last year at this time in the senate chamber of the state house, and the vote today was unanimous to return here next year for the annual reunion. The exact dates will be decided upon later.

The twenty-two members of the regiment that were here yesterday and today were:

Dan Kinney, Rushville; L. B. Downey, Rushville; B. P. Randall, Chicago, Ill.; 6203 Langley Ave.; Lewis H. Smith, New Salem; F. T. Joliff, Benton Harbor; Joseph Endicott, Rushville; Jesse Miller, Connersville; Albert Johnson, Rushville; James M. Young, New Salem; R. B. Jason B. Smith, Fairmount, Ind.; J. G. Boys, Rushville; W. A. Smith, Milroy; Brumfield Turner, Greensburg; George W. Phillips, New Salem; Taylor F. Meek, Greensburg. Continued on Page Six

STARVING MAYOR MAY LIVE A WEEK LONGER

Government is Providing Best Medical Attention For Hunger Striker in Brixton Prison.

19th DAY WITHOUT FOOD

(By United Press)
London, Sept. 2.—Government physicians reversed their recent prediction today and declared their belief that Terence MacSwiney, who went on a hunger strike in Brixton prison would live for a week or ten days longer.

The government is providing the best medical experts possible and have declared officially that MacSwiney will not be permitted to die from complications if science can prevent it. This is his nineteenth day without food.

Lord Stamfordham, private secretary to King George, has replied to a letter from Horatio Williams Bottomley, member of parliament, urging the release of MacSwiney. He told Mr. Bottomley that, even if the king favored the release of the mayor of Cork, it would be effected only by the sovereign's personal action in the face of the advice of his ministers with the presumable result that they would resign. He said also that there was the further risk that the "country at large might regard the price paid too high for the object obtained and blame the king for creating a grave political crisis at a time of special national stress and anxiety."

Hunger strikers at Mount Joy prison have arbitrated and began eating food this afternoon. Twenty hunger strikers at Brixton prison, however, continued their voluntary starvation and several have collapsed.

REFUSES SPECIAL SESSION

Governor of West Virginia Denies Aid For Women Voters

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 2.—Gov. John U. Cornwell, in a statement issued to-night, declared he would call no extra session of the Legislature to enact special legislation that women might vote in November in view of the fact that the Legislature had failed to act on his suggestion to pass such laws at the last session. It will be necessary, apparently, the statement said, to register the women voters at the two days' sitting of the state registrars.

The Governor said he deplored that the Legislature had failed to pass the necessary laws for the registration of women voters, and that he had no assurance that it would do so if an extra session were called.

Plenty of good 75c seats left for Thursday night's show. 145t

Amusements

"The Moon Riders" Mystic
It is not generally known that Art Acord, who is featured in "The Moon Riders," the Universal serial playing today at the Mystic Theatre, is the original "Buck" Parvin, around whom many tales of the west were written by the late Charles Van Loan. Through his connection Acord was starred in a series of "Buck" Parvin pictures produced by American.

During the war, he saw active service in France and was the winner of the coveted "Croix de Guerre." He was two years in that country, visiting practically every city, and he declared that "Paris was better guarded with M. P.'s than the front was with soldiers."

Art finds time from his movie work to compete in rodeos, in which cowboys delight, and is the winner of many events, holding several records. He won the World's Championship, among others, in open competition at the "Stampede" held in New York four years ago.

Acord has played in support of such stars as Theda Bara, Elsie Janis and Fritz Schell, appearing in many large productions, including, "Cleopatra," "Neely," "A Lady," "Pretty Mrs. Smith," and others. Before starting work on "The Moon Riders," Mr. Acord was featured in a series of Universal western productions and in that way gained quite a large following. He is twenty-eight years old and was born in Stillwater, Okla.

quite obvious that they intend to take a personal interest in the campaign and election.

The law requiring registration refers to women as well as to male voters. The law provides that registration may be effected either on September 4 or October 4. However, workers in both parties are centering their attention just now on the first registration day and are urging voters to enroll and thereby become qualified to cast their election ballots at the first opportunity which will be next Saturday. It is emphasized that registration is a necessary requirement to voting in this state and that to delay might possibly mean the loss of the vote.

While the registration boards will be in session in each of the thirty-one precincts in Rush county next Saturday it is not necessary for a voter to appear before the board in his or her precinct in person. The law provides that registration may be completed in advance by procuring a necessary blank and filling out the answers in the presence of a notary public or before two legal voters of the same precinct. This makes registration easy and convenient and there is no reason why any voter should neglect to comply with the law at the first opportunity.

There is another reason why registration should be completed as soon as possible, aside from the benefit to the voter. The names of all persons who register must be enrolled in the registration books of the precinct and these names are then copied by the county auditor. This is somewhat of a task and voters can aid the auditor in this work by registering on the first day. The second registration day is only twenty-nine days before the election and the time will then be short for compiling the official lists. Copies of the names are given to the county chairmen for use in checking up the poll.

It is stated that applications for registration may be written by lead pencil. There seemed to be some confusion as to where the names should be written in ink but the chairmen declare that a signature by lead pencil will suffice. However, as a matter of safety an indelible pencil should be used if possible.

The questions asked in the registration blanks are easily understood and no trouble is experienced in interpreting them. It is expected that thousands of Rush county voters will register Saturday and that hundreds of blanks will be sent to the precinct boards by messenger.

castle Rotarian "may come to Rushville and turn out your tail light—if you want to, but we will not be responsible for what happens to you."

The true spirit of Rotary prevailed at the whole meeting. Felicitations were passed back and forth and it was remarked by many of the speakers that the most kindly relations always existed between the two cities and should be fostered carefully.

Earl H. Payne, president of the Rushville club, responded to the short welcome address by Mayor Elliott and the toastmaster rotated in calling on members of both clubs to speak.

Ed Llewellyn, superintendent of the Newcastle schools and platform manager of the chautauqua here for three seasons, was introduced as the connecting link between the two cities and was frequently referred to as the "missing link."

Supt. Llewellyn said that the great trouble with the world was that too many people were wearing colored glasses and were not seeing things in their true light. He said that the Rotarians, in carrying out the ideals of the organization could accomplish wonderful things.

The talks were all impromptu and Rushville Rotarians called on were suggested by the local president. Short talks were made by Judge Will M. Sparks, Will O. Feudner and John A. Tittsworth, all of whom endorsed the country club idea and expressed the desire that one be organized in Rushville.

Judge Sparks moved that the Rushville club invite the Newcastle club to Rushville for the first meeting at the new Rushville club house and it was unanimously adopted by the local Rotarians.

Newcastle Rotarians, who spoke were Walter S. Chambers, editor of the Newcastle Times, who explained how the Newcastle country club was organized; John McQuinn, manager of the Hoosier Kitchen cabinet factory; and George Barnard, a Newcastle attorney who made the closing address.

Women and Registration

The woman who does not register Saturday and thus qualify herself to take advantage of her recent enfranchisement, is doing herself a very grave injustice because, regardless of what her opinion may be now with respect to voting, she may change her mind before November 2. And far be it from us to intimate that women are any more changeable than men.

But the woman who does not register may find it a source of great regret by election day. There is no woman who can turn over the leaves of the future and find what is contained therein. Little does she know what issue may arise in this campaign during the next two months. Some great moral question might develop, in which women would be especially interested, and that woman who had not prepared herself for the ballot by registering, would have failed in her duty to her community.

But aside from these considerations, women should register anyway. In the minds of some the question of cost has arisen. It is reported that they expect to escape paying a poll tax by not voting, but in his way they are mistaken because they pay such a tax for the privilege of voting, and if they do not take advantage of the opportunity to cast their ballot, it is no fault of the law.

Women now and always have been as much entitled to the ballot as men. Once they fully appreciate this and utilize their enfranchisement to improve conditions, they will doubtless be as ardent politicians as men have been. To vote they must register—either this coming Saturday or Saturday, October 2. They should settle the question now and have it over with. There is no occasion for waiting until October 2. Register now and come what may, they will be entitled to vote November 2. Registering is not binding in any way. It does not compel voting.

If should not be overlooked by some men who have not accepted enfranchisement in the right spirit, that interference with the rights of a voter might prove a very costly practice. There are federal laws to deal with persons who in any way hinder or prevent the exercise of the legal franchise which now has been extended to women.

It is common report that some men whose wives do not agree with them politically, have made the assertion that their wives shall never vote if they do not vote according to their views. Such statements are not only unbecoming, but they are dangerous because federal statutes cover such cases thoroughly.

Secretary of War Baker has ordered army men to stay out of politics; Postmaster General Burleson has ordered postal employees to keep out of politics; and it is hoped that there will be no federal order preventing republicans to participate in the election.

Officials of the democratic national committee who testified before the senate campaign expenses committee, said they had no evidence to substantiate Gov. Cox's charges of a republican $15,000,000 "slush fund," but that they "still believed it."

What with recently ordering Indiana miners back, Pres. Lewis has ordered the Alabama miners out, which would seem to even up the odds.

The anthracite coal miners have accepted the wage awards of the senate committee—and it is hoped that they acted without any mental reservations.

Mark Sullivan says that wet support is a harm to Cox, which it should be.

PLAN TO HAVE STATE BUREAU FOR SPEAKERS

By Plan Hundreds of Speakers Will be Listed to Offer Services to Legion in Patriotic Programs

GUARANTEE ALL EXPENSES

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 2—Plans for the organization of a state wide speakers bureau for the American Legion in Indiana were announced today by L. Russell Newgent, department adjutant. By the plan hundreds of speakers, who will offer their services to the Legion in its patriotic programs, will be listed, and copies of the list will be sent to all Legion posts of the state.

Each of the 304 local posts in the state, are asked to send to state headquarters name of persons in their communities who will be available for speeches when needed. These persons will be asked to serve without pay, but the Legion posts will guarantee all expenses for each speaker. Local posts in need of a man to conduct memorial exercises, to speak at programs observing patriotic days, etc., will then consult the list to obtain a speaker. It is the object to have the post obtain men who live as near their communities as possible.

Wanted men most of them Legion members, but not necessarily so. They must be men of high character, and able to attract attention. The only one of the 304 posts of the Legion to bury with a military honor the body of a man who from which the post took its name.

Evil.

Evil is what the love of money is the root of.

The root is the lowest part, of course. There is less unanimity of opinion as to what is the height of evil.

If everything else thrived as well under opposition as evil does, this would be a far different world.

Evil is also what men do that lives after them, if Bill Shakespeare is to be depended on.

Somebody a long time ago labeled a lot of things "evil," and we have stuck to the labels pretty faithfully.

But most of the things they marked "evil," should have been placarded "foolishness."

People who exercise all the intelligence they have do nothing that is really evil.

And they have a fine time, with no big heads or next mornings or other popular brands of hang-over.

Most of the time when we ask, "Is it right?" we could get the answer more suddenly if we said:

"Is it intelligent?"

Many things once labeled evil are not so.

We were brought up to believe that card playing is evil, intrinsically.

Also dancing—gee, whiz! Dancing was the worst thing there was!

Murder was a Sunday school exercise compared with it.

If one plays cards when one should be and could be doing something helpful and necessary, it is wrong.

So would corn hoeing or onion weeding be, if you were neglecting something more important for it.

Diffo dancing.

Although we do believe it wrong for anybody to do it as badly as we do.

A dancing teacher told us so, once. This isn't all we know about evil.

But it's all we're going to tell here.

MAKING UP TIME.

Father Time was looking anxiously at his reflection in the mirror.

He gazed at the bits of pigment in the pores of his skin and rubbed viciously at the rouge marks on his lips and the sooty place in his eyebrows.

"It's almost impossible for me to keep a decent complexion," he complained, bitterly. "Those railroad train men are always getting behind me and then making me up."

FINNICIAN PHILOSOPHY.

The nicest thing I can say about my wife is that she's a Finnish girl.

"Some Shoes"

Folks, school time is here and you, of course, will be in the market for shoes. I am nicely fixed to give you good shoes at good prices.

You have seen in the papers that shoes will be cheaper for Fall. Such is the case, but with this explanation and the trade: When shoe merchants contracted for Fall shoes last February, prices had advanced at least 20 per cent over one year ago. However, in the meantime, the leather prices broke, and shoe manufacturers of reports changed prices on orders equal to the amount of the break in the leather market which gives you the same merchandise as last year at practically last year's prices.

HISTORY

By George Matthews Adams

HISTORY is a marvelous Teacher. From her pages speak events, experiences and thrilling deeds—all products of the human brain. You are now playing a part of the future History of the World. Even the humblest man or woman has his part to play. And the part played must needs be recorded. The work of your days, and life, whether for good or ill, in its final summing up—is as sure to mark on influence some phase of the entire History of Histories, as each act you perform today is sure to give color and form to the final results of today. Yes—you are now playing a part of the future History of the World. It is the realization of this truth, by men and women that inspires some to become great and notable while others remain obscure. For just as soon as people wake up to the fact that Responsibility presses down upon them, they begin to draw upon their Reserve Power. And it is Reserve Power that helps make History fascinating. You are now playing a part of the future History of the World. It is not necessary, however, nor is it possible for us all to become notable in History. History is universal. And so is the Mind that makes up the human Soul. You—doing your work in the best way you know how—are as great an element in History as Alexander, or Washington, or Cromwell or such as they. Study History. It will arouse you to big deeds. Live as you would like to have History say you lived.

WOMAN OFFICIATES AT WEDDING SERVICE

Novelty is Provided in London When Miss Maude Royden Performs a Wedding Ceremony

NEW FASHION FOR LONDON

(By United Press)
London (By Mail)—A new fashion in weddings lately introduced gives the woman ecclesiast an opportunity to officiate.

The novelty was provided by the marriage of Douglas Sladen, the author, to Miss Christian Dorothea Duthie. The actual wedding contract was signed and sealed in a registry office—or marriage license bureau—and afterwards in Sladen's garden, the guests were invited to hear "an address by Miss Maude Royden."

Under a tree Miss Royden held a service in the presence of the married couple and invited guests, and afterwards read, as he styled it, "the finest poem on love in the world" (1 John, Chapter 4). Then followed a short address having for its theme family love and the position of love in the world, the proceedings being closed with the Lord's Prayer and the benediction. Miss Royden, who it will be remembered preached at Geneva during the Women's Congress, was in cassock and biretta, but the remaining guests had been notified "No presents; no wedding garments."

The bridegroom is in his 65th year, but the bride is well under 30.

MRS. HARDING GOOD CAMPAIGNER

May be Seen Almost Any Day in Strangers Who Stop to See Presidential Nominee

GOOD ON THE HANDSHAKING

When Campaign Ends She Will Probably Hold the Championship For Shaking Hands

By RAYMOND CLAPPER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Marion, O., Sept. 2.—The frothy porch handshaking record probably will be held by Mrs. Warren G. Harding instead of her candidate husband, if she keeps up her present pace throughout the presidential campaign.

As an understudy to the nominee, Mrs. Harding is rapidly outdoing him when it comes to greeting the scores of visitors and sending them away with the thrill that comes once in a life time.

While Harding is cooped up in his little office here wrestling with ponderous issues or studying his political chess board, out in the front yard is Mrs. Harding in cool white linen or a simple dark dress taking care of the visitors.

Dozens drive up in automobiles, tourists on long overland trips. They pull up to the curb cautiously wondering whether the lone policeman on guard will permit them to stop. He usually has his back turned talking to some local old timer and the tourists, bundled in veils, and dusters peer timidly out over the luggage debating whether they dare try to see Senator Harding.

Mrs. Harding, who probably has been pulling weeds out of a flower box on the porch, looks up and sees them. She hurries out to the curb, leans over the side of the car, and tells them she would like to have them meet the senator and would they be good enough to wait until she runs in "to see if Warren can come out". She comes back and is so sorry that Mr. Harding can't get away right now but he would like very much to see them and would they come back about noon. The tourists tell her where they are going and in two minutes she knows all about them and who is looking after the chickens while they are gone.

She would like to have them come up on the porch and talk a while but she sees some other people pulling up and she must go. What they want she is so glad they came by and she says they come back again, and so it goes.

If the Polish claims of the "annihilation" of Bunyos' army is borne out, it promptly removes the greatest Russian menace on the Polish front.

GERMANY TURNS DOWN PROPOSALS OF BOTH

Foreign Minister Says They Refuse Offer to Cooperate With Entente or Russians.

HE CREATES A SENSATION

(By United Press)
Berlin, Sept. 2.—Germany has refused proposals of both the Russian and entente to join in a war against the other, Foreign Minister Simons declared today.

In outlining the government's policy regarding Russia to the committee on foreign affairs, Simons said he had been urged to cooperate with the Bolsheviks against the entente and break the treaty of Versailles.

After mature deliberation the proposals were rejected, said Simons. The foreign minister caused a sensation by declaring that Germany had also been urged to join the entente against the Russians. This was also refused, he said.

No power warring upon the Soviet need count upon our support, the foreign minister said. We recognize the Soviet holds the reign of power in Russia and thus forms a defunct government.

Simons said that any attempt to co-operate with France or Poland against Russia would immediately plunge Germany into eternal warfare. Likewise any attempt to co-operate with Russia would make Germany a battle ground, he said.

FAVORS ENGLISH AS TONGUE OF WORLD

German Wireless Expert Says Language Only Great Barrier to Swift Movement of International Ideas

MANY NATIONS TO OBJECT

Graf Arco Believe Popular Vote However Would Elect The English Tongue to be Used Generally

By FRANK LEHNHOFF
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Berlin, August 20 (By Mail)—English is favored in Germany as the international language that it is admitted will be almost a necessity for use in world communication when wireless telegraphy and wireless telephony have been made thoroughly practical.

Besides difficulties of transmission, of long distance messages, most of which have now been overcome by use of high frequency stations, Graf Arco, Germany's wireless authority, in an interview with the United Press declared most trouble in complete interchange of ideas in the future may be found in the present use of so many languages.

"While I am an enthusiastic Esperantist," said Arco, "I believe a popular vote would elect the English tongue to be used generally in the transaction of business and transmission of news, because it is now spoken by the largest group of people on the globe.

"Naturally, there are many nations that would raise objection to the use of English as the world language on account of the belief that the study of it would kill their own nationality. Such fears, however, are unfounded, because in each land the mother tongue would be taught, plus English for international transactions.

Propos of the beginning of work on stations that will carry electric currents by wireless between Germany and Argentina, Graf Arco said:

"Wireless telegraphy has reached a stage of development in which previous difficulties encountered in long distance transmission have now been overcome. The greatest distance now practical is an earth quadrant or 10,000 kilometers. The chief difficulty hitherto encountered was with the transmitting station, but high frequency machines have been developed, so that now this trouble no longer occurs.

"As a result, the proposed connection with Argentina will be virtually perfect. Germans and Argentinians have collected practically all the necessary capital, so that the erection of the overseas apparatus could already be undertaken."

Graf Arco is optimistic as to the future of wireless telegraphy—and also wireless telephony—particularly if the nations will undertake a broadscale international regulation of the traffic so as to avoid transmission and receiving difficulties arising from too many stations sending in conflicting directions or at improper times.

He pointed out that about 60,000 words can be transmitted daily by a wireless station, whereas with cables there is a considerable delay from the fact that, since the war, roundabout routes must be followed. He held that, with wireless telephony, greater difficulties exist than with telegraphy, but tests made daily at the big Nauen station have proven that wireless telephone messages can be picked up from all quarters of Europe.

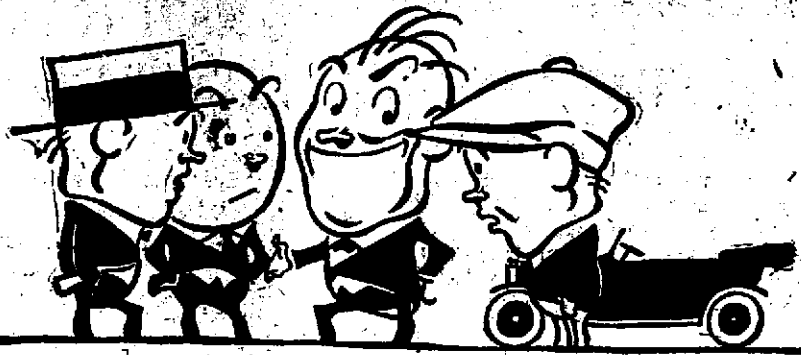

Nauen is waiting an opportunity to demonstrate that conversations are possible with America. Fifteen years ago, Graf Arco, as an April Fool joke, painted a supposed wireless telephone speech between America and Germany.

"Today, however, what was once merely an April Fool Joke is today merely a question of need and of profitability," he added. Incidentally, he related how recently he had heard the Dutch Indies distinctly through the wireless phone.

WANT TO GET BULK OF RUSSIAN TRADE

Economic Authorities See in Russia a Future Golden Business Opportunity For Country

FEAR A STRATEGIC POSITION

Germany Proposes to be in "on The Ground Floor" Once Business Does Open With Russia

By CARL D. GROAT
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Berlin, July 8 (By Mail).—Though some German officials concerned with Russian affairs look skeptically for the moment upon trade possibilities with Russia, certain economic authorities including Food Minister Schmidt see in Russia a future golden business opportunity for Germany.

And, while one group of officials scoffs at the Russian claims as to ability to deliver goods to the rest of the world, another group is carefully planning for the later conquest of the East.

Germany feels that she is in a strategic position to get a generous share of the Russian trade, and is inclined to think that in the long run she can outstrip England (America and France in this field).

Minister Schmidt's views of the situation as expressed to the Wirtschaftsrat are a clear indicator of the German feeling about the problem.

"With respect to our ability to compete on the world market, we will have no easy position in the future," he said. "We will soon have a sharp competition, especially with America. The concentration of all financial power in the United States as it developed during the war must lead directly to formulation of world trusts. England also has assembled strong forces within itself.

"Greater prospects are offered us through approaches to the East. The Russian market offers many possibilities for trade relations with us. It concerns us as one of the nearest markets in which we have, as far as England and America are concerned, the indisputable advantage of a more favorable territorial situation."

Incidentally, Schmidt viewed Germany's industrial situation as approaching a crisis inasmuch as foreign demand has decreased with the increase of prices and improvement of the mark, but he was inclined to believe that the present difficulties would be remedied if all factories would apply proper methods and if import and export were correctly controlled by the govern-

Meantime, it is significant that Russia is pursuing a systematic campaign as respects future trade relations. Establishment of an agency here under Wigdor Kopp, followed by Krassin's visit to London are known to be part of a carefully planned scheme whether Russia should plant her business relations again in foreign lands.

Germany, as previously pointed out, takes with a grain of salt the astounding figures of what Russia is able at this moment to export, pointing out that transportation facilities are lacking for such undertakings—even if the supplies are at hand. And, Russian experts here are inclined to believe that there is considerable rooming as to what Russia has on hand for export.

However, while some officials take this attitude, business men and many government authorities are overlooking no bets.

Germany proposes to be in "on the ground floor" once business does open with Russia. There are many German business men who know the Russian language and customs from long pre-war experience, and they count this knowledge as an asset which America and England possess in a far lesser degree.

The German business man regards Russia as "virgin territory" at this time. That is to say, he realizes that its wartime exhaustion plus the ravages of economic disintegration under Bolshevism will make it a fruitful field for the outside world. And, with this knowledge, he hopes to be able to get a lead in the business race once that gets under way. He does not underestimate the strength of his opponent—England—who is also trying to get the inside track.

PONZI INQUIRY GOES INTO AID OF POLICE

TOOK NEW ACCOUNTS TO HIM

Boston, Sept. 2.—The activities of four police inspectors, a lieutenant and several patrolmen as agents of Charles Ponzi are under investigation to-day and the police authorities are said to have found that police officers of various ranks who were interested in taking hundreds of new accounts to the "Wizard's" officers derived therefrom commissions running into the thousands.

It is further charged that wives and other relatives of police officers solicited and secured a considerable number of clients in the Ponzi undertaking.

At least a score of persons, some of them once connected with the business, and others, including persons prominent in the city, have been called to testify as to their knowledge of Charles Ponzi's assets, at the resumption of the hearing on the involuntary bankruptcy proceedings. Among the number are several who have not been mentioned heretofore in connection with "the wizard's" financial collapse.

A sharp notice has been sent to Mrs. Ponzi to the effect that she must turn over the high priced automobile she has retained, without further delay. One woman note holder has called upon the receivers to remove Mrs. Ponzi, Mrs. Ponzi's sister and Ponzi's mother from the home without delay.

The arrest of a few of the agents of the Ponzi organization and of the Old Colony Foreign Exchange Company, the rival concern, has caused several former agents of the two companies to turn over varying sums of money, which they say represent commissions received during the period of their activities.

The Economy of Using Goodyear Small Car Tires

So-called bargain tires, made up for sensational sales and offered at ridiculously low prices, do not attract careful buyers.

They are far more concerned with what they get than with what they pay because they know that in the end it is performance and not price that delivers actual tire economy.

The popularity of Goodyear Tires, of the 30x3-, 30x3½- and 31x4-inch sizes, is based on the fact that they deliver exceptional mileage at exceedingly low cost.

If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car taking these sizes, go to your nearest Service Station for Goodyear Tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes.
